PASTORAL ROBBERY

Confesses Part in Mail Robbery, But Refuses to Name His Accomplices

Mr. Vernon, 31, Jan. 22.—Rev. Guy Kyle has confessed he participated in Mr. Vernon's $121,000 mail robbery. He pointed out to postal inspectors where some of the loot was hidden, but he carefully concealed what he had abandoned the pulp to become hand.

The confession was made to R. W. Hinchcock, post office inspector of Mr. Vernon, after he and inspectors Gould and Reuter had grilled the former minister for six hours. The inspectors caught Kyle's arrest after they had been to had paid an expressman $5 to drive an automobile supposed to have contained registered mail bags.

RECOVERED.—The money and securities had been shipped to Mr. Vernon, Friday, by Chicago bank. It was to be used in meeting payroll, it disappeared from a truck between the depot and the post office.

Of the $121,000 stolen $108,000 has been recovered. The inspectors found $109,000 in an egg case in the attic of Kyle's home. Another $10,000 was recovered from a garage and after he had confessed Kyle took over $500 hidden in his clothes and $1,000 in his hidden in a suitcase.

"Kyle has confessed but he refuses to name his accomplices," says Hinchcock. "We are still working on the case and hope eventually to secure a full confession and incidentally recover the rest of the money."

RECORDED MAN WAYWARD.—The investigators said Kyle was a man of no account and a failure in his home life. He was a member of many of them. Before he had entered the ministry he had studied law but had not been admitted to the bar. He was the pastor of the First Baptist Church in his home town of New York. He was a powerful exhorter and had improved worldly men and women. Three years ago, it was learned he had left the church and became affiliated with another sect.

Recently he entered a partnership with Loren Williams, who was charged an automobile repair shop. Previous to the arrest in connection with the mail robbery here had been charged that he had been in connection with liquor and gambling, the inspector learned.

Rules Governing Movie Player Identity Test

The Boston American and the Boston Sunday Advertiser's new Movie Player Identity Test is a test of skill and judgment open to all readers of the Boston American and Boston Sunday Advertiser, regardless of age, living in any city or town in New England or Canada.

Two hundred and nineteen movie players will be given by these two newspapers to their readers who submit the correct answers to the test. The test is open to all readers of the Boston American and Boston Sunday Advertiser, and all movie players and persons connected with the motion picture industry are absolutely barred from participation in the test.

The test will consist of 120 questions of the movie players' identity test, to be sent each day, in the Boston American and Boston Sunday Advertiser, from Monday, December 13, 1920.

Participation in any other contest which has been run, which is now running or which shall be run by the Boston American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser will not count against the winning of this test.

Every participant at any or all members of a family will be allowed to submit one set of pictures, but each set must contain only one identification in each picture, and no identification will be received in more than one set, and no more than one set shall be given to any one family.

Back and every identification must be neatly written or printed on the common form provided by the Boston American or Boston Sunday Advertiser or on a note of some book form.

Identification, accompanied either by the picture furnished by the Boston American or Boston Sunday Advertiser, or a note of some book form, must have the name, residence, age, sex, of the participant on each identification.

Do not send your identification in "just" any name, i. e., do not write identification under any name on a piece of paper.

In case there are no complete sets of movie identifications, there will be given to the person submitting the latest correct answer of correct identifications.

In case of a tie, the winner will be made on the basis of picture, judgment and speed of answer in picture, but if the cannot be decided in that way, the tied participants will receive similar awards.

Under no circumstances should participants send in their identifications before the end of the test, as any sent in before the last picture is printed will not be considered. KEEP your identifications from day to day and at the end of the test arrange them in numerical order and then send them in all together at one time.

They will not be a factor in making the awards. The first identifications sent in after the test closes will stand as better than the last submitted.

All identifications must be delivered to the Boston American Store, 210 Huntington, at No. 80 Summer street, Boston, Mass., either by mail or in person, within specified time limit, which will be announced later.

All envelopes or packages containing identifications must be sealed and addressed as follows: "Movie Test Editor, No. 80 Summer street, Boston, Mass., P. O. Box 124" and each envelope or package must bear the name and address of the sender, neatly written or printed on the outer left-hand corner.

All identifications will contain written or printed matter, if mailed, it is absolutely necessary that the envelope be fully sealed on postal letter rates, as well as the character of the contents as first class matter.

The Boston American and the Boston Sunday Advertiser reserve the right to refuse to consider any sets of identifications in which charges for special delivery are not paid.

Participants who desire further information should address their inquiries to the Movie Test Editor, No. 80 Summer street, Boston, Mass. Questions will be answered, as possible, through the columns of the Boston American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser. If participants desire personal replies, they should enclose sufficient money for such reply, or they may please mail reply, or call in person.

The Boston American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser reserves the right to make any change in, or addition to, these conditions and to modify or terminate the test at any time without notice.

Do not attempt to "cheat" and the test will be automatically "disqualified" and no identification will be made in any case.

ANNE SENDS ONE OVER—Grace Twiliver on ball team at Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee. Southpaw. Throws everything but a splitter. Whole name's Anne Harwick. (U. & U.)

WAR VETERAN IS PRIZE WINNER—"Victory" is a carrier pigeon who served with honors. Shown with Miss Helen Smith. Since his discharge he has won many prizes. (Int.)

COSTUME BALL?—Looks like one of those fancy dress skating costumes. He's just a chimney sweep skating to work in Germany. Get the hat. That's his display act. (Int.)

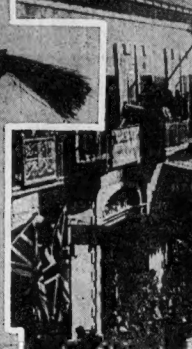

REMEMBER THE WINTER OF '64?—The conversation of these fellows usually hinges on events before you and I were born. Combined ages for the six totals more than 600 years. They are inmates of the Winsted home for the aged in Barre, founded in 1649 by a Simsbury who were a two point hat, cloak and sword. (Int.)

LIVING IN A WINDMILL—This quaint dwelling is located at Harford, England. The old sails taken off and the interior reconstructed, the mill makes a neat little home as anyone would ask. Windmills in Boston would bring about $100 a month. (Int.)
